New Baptist Congregation. A gentleman interested in the movement for a new Baptist congregation furnishes the following statement:

The Sid Williams tent has been erected on the corner of Bell avenue and Main street, and the meetings will begin Sunday aftermoon at 4 o'clock. It is expected that the new church will be organized Monday evening. The pasters of the Baptist churches of Houston, traiveston, Beaumont Been ham and La Porte have been Invited and will take part in the organization of the church. Great things are expected of the new organization, and it marks the beginning of a new era in the history of this denomination in this part of the State. The church will be in close harmony with the organized work of the denomination and will maintain the highest standard of moral and religious life.
